

New Vice Chancellor of Ishakha International University Bangladesh

The honorable President of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and chancellor of the Universities appointed Dr. Md. Sultan Uddin Bhuiya, as new Vice- Chancellor of Ishakha International University Bangladesh. He joined his new assignment on 2nd March 2017. Professor Bhuiya is an agronomist. He was a teacher of Bangladesh Agriculture University. He did his Bachelor's and Master's degree from this University and Department of Agronomy, respectively. He started his career as Scientific Officer in this Department and later on joined as Lecturer and retired as Professor in June 2016. He was an excellent pedagogue in teaching in the classes in all levels. More than 200 students got their Master's degree and 15 students got their Ph.D. degrees under his direct supervision. He published more than 150 scientific articles and 60 popular articles in different national and international reputed journals and Medias. He has already published 9 books on agricultural sciences for the graduate and undergraduate students of different Universities and Institutes. He is the member of 15 different professional societies and was honored by the Agronomy Society of Bangladesh by crest and certificate for his contribution in the field of Agronomic education and research. Prof. Bhuiya has a lot of research and training experiences both as trainee and trainers. He has visited several Countries like U.K., China, India, Kenya Ethiopia, Thailand, Malaysia, Nepal, Srilanka, etc. for research and training purposes. Prof. Bhuiya is working as Chief Editor of the Scientific Journal "Journal of Agroforestry and Environment" published by the Agroforestry Society of Bangladesh.

As an educational Administrator, he worked as Provost, Student Affairs Advisor, Coordinator CASR, Director of BAURES and Head of the Department. Besides, he also worked as Chairman of different committees as desired by the Vice Chancellor of the University. In absence of Vice-Chancellor, sometimes he was in charge of his position. Prof. Bhuiya was a Syndicate Member of Khulna University. He was member of Academic Council of BAU, PSTU and Sylhet Agricultural University. He is working as member of selection committee of different Universities, member of Common Wealth scholar selection committee, Public Service Commission, member and chairman of the National Science and Technology Scholarship Committee. He also worked as a National Consultant at FAO, CARE and CONCERN.